UMC Diversity Center

By Elizabeth Tollefson on   Monday, December 13, 2004

The UMC Diversity Center, a center for all students, is scheduled to open Thursday, December 16 in Dowell Hall 120. The purpose of the Diversity Center at University of Minnesota Crookston is to foster a sense of community among students, faculty, staff, and administrators of all races, genders, and national origins. The Diversity Center provides an opportunity for people of all cultures to meet, to explore their heritages, and to work toward understanding, respect, and appreciation for the diversity within our campus community and society.

The objectives of the Center are to:
Provide a supportive environment to all students, faculty, staff, and administrators in which to gather informally as well as a resource library and study and meeting space.Promote an appreciation of diversity and multiculturalism on campus and Crookston community. Support pride and promote community among all students. Foster cooperation and communication within UMC'S campus and Crookston community.

Stop in and see what UMC's Diversity Center has to offer!
